

A TASTY TIME AT ROTARY'S CAMP PA-QUA-TUCK

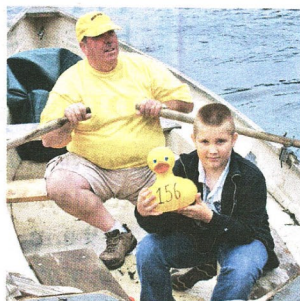

The big ducks are ready to race during the Moriches Rotary Club's 42nd annual Family Style Duck Barbecue at Camp Pa-Qua-Tuck in Center Moriches on Sunday.

Joey Hiller, 3, of Center Moriches chows down on a chicken dinner.

The winning duck gets brought in by Rotarian Newt Homan and his grandson, Garrett Battenberg, 11, of Center Moriches.

Center Moriches Superintendent of Schools Russell J. Stewart and his daughter Vanessa, 2, root for their duck.

Moriches Rotary Club member Ralph Armitrano of Center Moriches, second from right, is presented with a $10,000 check for having the winning duck in the big duck race by Moriches Rotary Club President Bill LeMaire, right.

John and Julie Halmo and their son Richard, 12, of Manorville pick a duck.
